

Organizations Supporting the Choose Home Care Act (S. 2562/H.R. 5514)

CHOOSE HOME

The National Association for Home Care & Hospice is a nonprofit organization that represents the nation's 33,000 home care and hospice organizations. NAHC also advocates for the more than two million nurses, therapists, aides, and other caregivers employed by such organizations to provide in-home services to some 12 million Americans each year.

The Partnership for Quality Home Healthcare was established to ensure access to quality home healthcare services for all Americans. The Partnership is dedicated to developing innovative reforms to improve the program integrity, quality, and efficiency of home healthcare for our nation's seniors.

AARP is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for all as we age. They lead positive social change and deliver value to members through advocacy, service, and information to make things better for society.

The mission of LeadingAge is to be the trusted voice for aging. Their 5,000+ members and partners include not-for-profit organizations representing the entire field of aging services, 38 state partners, hundreds of businesses, consumer groups, foundations, and research partners.

Allies for Independence is a unique national advocacy organization dedicated to the implementation of a strong, vital, and accessible long-term services and supports system. Their member organizations include nearly 50 of America's leading senior organizations.

The first national voice for older adults, the National Council on Aging helped end mandatory retirement. They advocated to secure Medicare, Medicaid, and the Older Americans Act. They serve older adults every day and empower them with knowledge.

Moving Health Home (MHH) is a coalition made up of stakeholders working to change federal and state policy to enable the home to be a clinical site of care.

The Council of State Home Care & Hospice Associations is an organization of the associations representing homecare and hospice provider communities across the U.S. They represent more than 15,000 agencies.

The Forum of State Associations is a division of NAHC that is open to all organizations representing home care and hospice providers on a state level. A major focus of the Forum of State Associations is to assist state associations to develop and grow into strong state advocates and fiscally sound organizations.